

German Financial Geography Lab – Forschungswerkstatt Finanzgeographie 2019

October 24th – October 25th 2019

The Science Park Gelsenkirchen, Munscheidstraße 14, 45886 Gelsenkirchen, Germany (Plenarsaal)

October 24 th 1.00 pm	Welcome Tee and Coffee
1.30 pm	Welcome Stefan Gärtner (Institute for Work and Technology Gelsenkirchen)
1.40 pm	The geography of UK Business Angel investing: Does local bias still matter? Neil Lee (London School of Economic and Social Sciences)
2.20 pm	Holding the Centre: SWIFT and technological change in cross-border payments Gary Robinson, Sabine Dörry, Ben Derudder (Luxembourg Institute of Socio-Economic Research and Ghent University)
2.50 pm	Can the blending of climate-mitigation finance instruments enhance its contributions? The case of geothermal energy development in Kenya Chigozie Nweke-Eze (University of Bonn)
3.20 pm	Coffee Break
3.40 pm	Diversity in Finance: An Overview Reinhard H. Schmidt (Goethe University Frankfurt)
4.20 pm	Retail-Bank Efficiency: Nonstandard Goals and Environmental Determinants Johann Burgstaller (University of Linz)
4.50 pm	Digitalization in the Brussels banking sector: natural evolution or cost-cutting logics? Maëlys Waiengnier (Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Université Libre de Bruxelles)
5.20 pm	Short Interventions and Discussion
	Forced Displacement and the Role of Financial Services: Outline of a multi-pronged research initiative to explore and strengthen financial lives of refugees Hans-Martin Zademach (Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt)
	Measuring geographical diversity. A simple indicator to measure the centrality of banking systems Franz Flögel and Stefan Gärtner (Institute for Work and Technology Gelsenkirchen)

	Whither corporate financialization? Some remarks on the existing literature and snapshots from an ongoing project Tobias J. Klinge (KU Leuven)
6.20 pm	End
7.30 pm	Dinner at Luigi

October 25th 9 am	Tee and Coffee
9.30 am	Funktionsweisen regionaler Bankenmärkte am Beispiel der Sparkasse Gelsenkirchen Bernhard Lukas (CEO of the Sparkasse Gelsenkirchen)
10.10 am	Von Private Equity zu chinesischen Investoren: Aktuelle Öffnungen der deutschen Volkswirtschaft (From Private Equity to Chinese Investors: Current Openings of the German Economy) Christoph Scheuplein (Institute for Work and Technology Gelsenkirchen)
10.40 am	Lokale Banken – eine globale Erfolgsgeschichte (Making Local Banking a worldwide success) Nicole Brand (Sparkassenstiftung für internationale Kooperation)
11.20	Coffee Break
11.40	Initial Coin Offerings: Linking Technology and Financialization Michael Grote (Frankfurt School of Finance and Management)
12.20	Crowdfunding in Deutschland: Organisatorische und räumliche Strukturen Severin Rütger (University of Bonn)
12.50	Wie Gesundheitsversorgung zur Finanzanlage wird – Auf der Suche nach qualitativ-methodischen Zugängen zur Assetization von Medizinischen Versorgungszentren Richard Bůžek (University of Münster)
13.20	End and Lunch